

A MORE STRATEGIC APPROACH TO RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION

The Office of Unified Communications (OUC) is committed to hiring dedicated individuals who have a passion for public safety and emergency communications in order to continue to provide fast, professional, and effective response to emergency and non-emergency calls in the District.

In order to hire and retain committed and qualified members, the OUC has reinvented its recruitment process which includes implementing a Telecommunicator Prospect Day to make onboarding more efficient and incentivizing employment by introducing a $2500 hiring bonus.

PREVIOUS HIRING PROCESS

approximately 6 months

CURRENT HIRING PROCESS

approximately 3 months

The agency's new recruitment strategy is designed to accelerate the hiring process by up to 50%

The Office of Unified Communications currently has thirty (30) vacancies for Telecommunications Equipment Operators.

This new hiring process will allow our team to quickly fill those positions with qualified and dedicated individuals.

PROSPECT DAY

911 Telecommunicator Prospect Day helps the OUC streamline the hiring process by allowing applicants to complete multiple steps of the process in one day. Prospect Day will be held monthly, on site, at the Unified Communications Center.

The first Prospect Day was held on Thursday, May 11, and the OUC welcomed 190 applicants.

During their allotted time, applicants:

- Completed the CritiCall Pre-Employment Assessment
- Participated in on-the-spot interviews
- Toured the OUC's state-of-the-art facility

PATHWAYS TO EMPLOYMENT

The OUC continues to utilize traditional and innovative pathways to employment to recruit diverse and qualified members.
